NOTEWORTHY ACTIVITIES:

There was a pursuit as a result of a traffic violation in May. Officer discontinued the pursuit based on Dept. policy. Criminal charges have since been filed against the operator.

Officer on patrol was dispatched to a burglar alarm at Dollar General. On arrival the Officer smelled smoke at the door. He summoned the fire department and as a result a small fire was extinguished inside the store.

An Officer responded to assist PSP with a crash scene just south of the Borough. The one operator had fled the scene and the Officer subsequently located the operator and took them into custody for PSP.

Off. Russell attended a 40 hour class at Alleghany Police Academy on Crime Scene Processing

The Speed Sign was in the 200 block of N Carlisle St during the month of May. It showed an average of 424 cars per day (North Bound). Speed at the 85th percentile was 32 MPH and the maximum speed recorded was 42 MPH.

We joined other departments from MD and PA in support of safe driving for the Memorial Day Weekend.

“Thank You” to the VFW for making the Memorial Day Parade happen this year.
