April Updates

Training

On April 30th, Officer Morrow and I attended a seminar hosted by the Hagerstown Police Department in partnership with the Maryland Governor's Office for Crime Prevention. The seminar provided valuable insights into public safety and was a beneficial learning opportunity for enhancing our understanding of current issues and strategies in the field.

GPD has initiated its annual firearms qualification training. Officers Morrow - Kamoie and I were invited by the Hagerstown Community College Police Department to participate in a session at the Hagerstown Police Department firearms range. This training proved to be highly valuable for our officers. Not only did we successfully complete the qualification process, but the day also included scenario-based training, which focused on dynamic movements and shooting techniques. The training covered essential drills, such as transitioning between lethal and less-lethal platforms, enhancing our officers' versatility and readiness. Future dates for the other Officers will be upcoming.

Community Awareness

On April 17th, the Greencastle Police Department (GPD) released an informational flyer on social media regarding bicycle and e-bike safety. With warmer weather and more people out enjoying the outdoors, GPD encourages everyone to remain mindful of safety concerns while on the road.

Community Involvement

On April 19th, Officer Creager participated in the annual Easter Egg Hunt hosted by the Lions Club at Tayamentasachta. Officer Creager had the pleasure of handing out candy and stickers to the children, contributing to a fun and community-focused event.

On the same day, Ofc. Creager participated in the fish rodeo hosted by the Greencastle Sportsman's Club.

Respectfully Submitted:

Jason T. Batistig

Chief of Police
