NOTEWORTHY ACTIVITIES:

One Overdose death as a result of Cocaine in May.

Councilman Faight and I attended the District Attorneys Annual Drug Task Force Meeting with municipalities.

Off. Bradley responded to a residence where a male was arrested the night before on Domestic Violence. The subject had made threats to kill the victim upon his release. He did in fact return to the residence and was promptly taken into custody again by Bradley prior to the victim being harmed.

A "Thank You" to Mt View Animal Hospital for their assistance in humanely euthanizing a cat struck by a vehicle on Baltimore St.

Local Mayors and Police Chiefs had the opportunity to meet with Congressman Joyce last week about the Opioid and Drug Crisis we are facing. It's nice to know our representatives are listening.

We were contacted by Mr. Rife, Principal at GAHS. He coaches a recreational basketball team and requires some type of service project monthly from the team. This month, they brought cookies to first responders. It's good to know there are people out there doing right by our young people.
