Reports from Council Members

Police Chief Phillippy explained that the department will be putting information together to build a timeline and thanked everyone for their condolences.

Mayor Eberly noted that this is the last time he will sit as Mayor and that he was looking to get to vote one more time. He thanked everyone for the privilege to serve for the last 12 years.

Mr. Farley offered his condolences for the tragic event and noted that most of us have had to put down our best friend. Mr. Farley stated that this has been a profound emotional event.

Mr. Eckstine stated that until you see someone who loves their pet, you don't know how important animals are.

Mr. Myers stated that there has been an outpouring of support in the Borough and surrounding communities that has left him speechless. He said that sometimes you don't know how many people you have touched until it is too late and he challenged everyone to continue to come together.

Mr. Faight stated that he was a very big supporter of Rony and expressed his condolences to Officer Russell.

Mr. Kinzer thanked everyone who gets involved and encouraged everyone to continue to be involved. He also thanked everyone who decorated their house for Christmas.

Mr. Coccorese stated that Solicitor Wisner was sorry he couldn't be in attendance, but he wished everyone a Merry Christmas from everyone at Salzmann Hughes.

Council voted unanimously to adjourn at 7:20p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Ericka Faight
Borough Secretary
