NOTEWORTHY ACTIVITIES:

During the month of November GPD had a food drive for the local food pantry. The response from our community was overwhelming.

Thank-you for stepping up and showing why Greencastle is such a great community.

A special than-you to the Mayor, Ericka who made this a success, Councilman Faight and Flowers Baking, Sunnyway Foods and Glenwood Foods.

The Food Pantry report this was the largest food drive they have had with an estimated 10,000 items donated.

In November, GPD arrested an individual wanted for a homicide out of Hagerstown MD. He was taken into custody on E Baltimore St and placed in Franklin County Jail pending his return to MD.

GPD investigated two stolen vehicles this past month. Both have been recovered. A suspect has been identified and charges are being prepared. The suspect, a juvenile, is already detained on other charges.

Finally, a thank-you to the department as a whole. Scheduling has been a little difficult recently. We have had two Officers out on medical related issues and two additional out on Covid issues. There have been some odd shifts and long hours but we are doing our best to get thru.
