A letter was read from the Pennsylvania Railroad stating that the company was willing to abandon their track on Carlisle St. provided that Council would remove the rails and assemble them at a point designated by the company; and also provided that the expense for repairing and resurfacing the street would be born by the Borough. The secretary was instructed to request the R. R. Company to send a representative to Greencastle to discuss such details as the distance to which the track would be abandoned at the ends, and other matter which might arise.

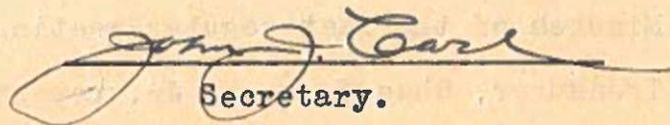

The street committee reported parching and small repairs needed in various sections of the town, and by motion was authorized to proceed with this work.

The purchase of a tract of land at Moss Spring was discussed. It was pointed out that before Council could proceed in this matter that it would be necessary to pass a proper ordinance. The preparation of the same was referred to the Ordinance committee.
